THE PROFESSIONAL SIDE OF ART

Cathin Bishop, from Peninsula Gallery, will explain the benefits and techniques of professional framing. To quote Cathin – “I can sell a poor painting in a great frame, but have a hard time selling a great painting in a poor frame.”

Have you taken the time to create an Artist's Bio and resume? Do you use business cards, artist's trading cards, a website, sales receipts? A professional presentation will help to enhance the face you present to the public and instill confidence in potential clients. Join our discussion and share your experiences.

Private Critiques Available at All Second Tuesday Meetings

Bring your unfinished or completed works for private review by an experienced DWS member. Helpful guidance and insight will be provided. Please remember that those items presented for critique may not be submitted to the DWS Signature Jury nor entered into a DWS juried show.
